AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ALCOHOL AND YOUNG PEOPLE

Ashford International Hotel, Kent | Friday 20 November 2009 | 09.00 - 16.30

The Health and Europe Centre has great pleasure in announcing that registration is now open for WASTED: An International Conference on Alcohol and Young People, which will take place at The Ashford International Hotel, Ashford, Kent on 20th November 2009.

The conference will provide examples of interventions trialed in a range of settings in the UK, Europe and North America, which have shown promising results in reducing alcohol consumption amongst children and young people. Speakers will include Tony Goodall, Alcohol and Substance Misuse Lead for NHS Leeds and Dr Lars Møller, European Regional Advisor for the World Health Organisation. Case studies will include the Strengthening Families Programme (UK), Örebro Prevention Programme (Sweden) and the 'Be Under Your Own Influence' social marketing campaign from the USA.

Delegates will contribute to a lively discussion about how the showcased examples could be adapted to enhance local service delivery and the steps necessary to achieve this.

The cost of attending this conference is £75.00 + VAT. The working language of the conference is English.

We would be delighted to welcome you and your colleagues to this event.

The conference will run from 9am until 4.30pm. For further information about the speakers, case studies and to register, please go to our conference website at:
